Architecture

A collaborative workspace with a wooden table covered in papers, sticky notes, and design tools. Several people's hands are visible, interacting with the materials. One hand is pointing at a sticky note, while another rests on the table near a pencil. The papers include a color palette, a diagram with numbered circles (01, 02, 03, 04), and various text documents. A yellow highlighter and a white mug are also on the table.
